July Newsletter

Branch 616 is well into the Legion fiscal year. The new executives are in place and the members have adjusted to their roles. We had a super-successful Canada Day Party, the first big event of the Legion New Year! We will now have a somewhat relaxed summer schedule to enjoy. The 'Meals to Wheels' TGIF dinner deal is on hiatus and the less involved Friday Pub Nite/ BBQ plan is underway. All dart leagues are also on hiatus but do drop in anytime during open hours for a fun game. The pool table is also always available.

President Kevin Johnson, who has taken the Membership portfolio, would like to remind members that General Meetings are suspended for the summer and will resume in September. Executive meetings are ongoing as usual, every third Monday at 6:30 p.m. The Ladies Auxiliary has also suspended regular meetings, also to resume in September. We will have the semi-annual Joint Meeting of the Branch and Ladies Auxiliary on Monday, August 21, at 7:00 pm.

Sports Officer Wayne Flieler reports that Branch 616 was very successful at Smiths Falls Zone Golf on June 10. All teams qualified for District and will be going to Branch 370 Iroquois on Saturday, July 15. Congratulations to Tom Watters and Eric Currie, Super Seniors category; Rob Gallant and Kevin Johnson, Seniors; Harriet Farrell, Denise Lyttle, Lynda Boland and Julie Delahunt, Ladies. Good luck at District!

Last Post: The Legion has said goodbye to another Comrade. We regret to announce that Alan Brownlee passed away this month, a fine member and a retired firefighter. Condolences to his wife Denise and their family. R.I.P. Comrade.

Past Events:

Friday June 2:  Meals to Wheels, Beef Kabobs!!
Best kabobs ever - thank you to the Harlows, the Friday Crew, and the satisfied customers!

Friday June 16:  Meals to Wheels, Spinach-stuffed Chicken Breast. Harriet and company cooked up a delicious batch of chicken with mashed potatoes and gravy. These two meals were enjoyed by over 100 customers each and were the last two of summer. Full course dinners will be back in September! Thank you all!

Saturday July 1: Canada Day Pig Roast!! What a great Birthday Party we had for our Country! There were a record number of guests, great entertainment by our local guys 'Nt Nrml', and a delicious dinner. The horseshoe tourney organized by Vic Jannack had barely got underway when the thunderstorm broke out. That ended that! The rain storm and hail didn't dampen our spirits though; we just moved the celebration inside and carried on! Vic, Bowser, Greg Towers and retired Councilor Eli El-Chantiry took the pigs from the smoker around 4:00 pm. Eli and Councilor Clarke Kelly were on hand to help carve and serve dinner! Nt Nrml got the dance floor going !! Thank you to them and to all involved.
